SELECTION CRITERIA:

- Possession of a relevant PhD and several years’ post-doctoral experience in a relevant area of Sport Management.
- A strong record of publication in relevant journals
- Knowledge and experience of contemporary teaching methods including small group teaching, problem based learning and contemporary assessment practices, and ability to maintain academic standards.
- Demonstrated success as a teacher and commitment to the provision of high quality teaching and student support.
- Outstanding communication and interpersonal skills, including the ability to collaborate and perform effectively within an inter-disciplinary environment.
- Have strong relationships with industry and links with appropriate external professional organizations, or demonstrate the ability to create such links

DESIRABLE CRITERIA:

- The ability to take a key role in the design and development of curriculum to ensure teaching and learning reflects best practice
- The ability to contribute significantly to internal and external reviews and accreditation of subjects and programs.
- A proven track record in securing externally funded research.