Instructions for preparation

The purpose of the abstract is to define the precise subject of the presentation. No acknowledgements, figures or references should be included.

Underline the author(s) making the presentation. This author will be considered the key person for all contact about the paper. Include all co-authors names, affiliations and addresses for general correspondence (including email address) above the abstract text and below the title.

A brief written personal profile (maximum 100 words) is required from the presenting author. Please forward the profile with the abstract submission.

SAMPLE: SMITH John, currently works as a Staff Development Educator with the Mental Health Nursing Research and Education Unit, Glenside Campus, in Adelaide. His area of interest is the Prevention and Management of Aggressive Behaviour in the workplace and Critical Incident Stress Debriefing. He has been involved extensively in consultation, ongoing development and facilitation of Aggression Management training workshops and the provision of debriefing services and training across a wide range of health and other occupational settings in both the public and private sector.
